Wondering If That Old Casino Souvenir of Yours Is Valuable?

Bring your casino collectible to the World's Largest Casino Collectibles Show for professional assessment

LAS VEGAS (June 6, 2022) — If you have an old casino souvenir of any kind - chip, token, or any of hundreds of items casinos of yesteryear used for promotional purposes, you have a wonderful opportunity to have your treasure evaluated by those in the know. You can consult with over 50 dealers of casino memorabilia at the 29th annual Casino Chip and Collectibles Show at the South Point Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. It is the World's Largest Casino Chip and Collectibles exhibition, on display Thursday thru

Saturday, June 16-18, 2022.

Bring your collection to the show. The following dealers would be happy to give you a little history on your item(s), and a range of value – not an appraisal – from the casino collectibles world. If you are interested, many dealers, like the ones listed below, can extend offers to buy your item(s).

Ancient & U.S. Coins, B & V Coin, Cal-Nev Chips, Chuck Gajewski, C.T. Coins, Dan's Casino Tokens, John Zoesch, Marlow Casino Chips, Meyer's Antiques, Reno Casino Chips, Spinettis Gaming Supplies, Steven Cutler, and TropChip 711.

More About the Show

For anyone who finds casinos – and specifically casino history – a fascinating topic, this show is a must-see event. And for the low price of admission, $10 max, it’s an entertainment value. Open to the public, this unique show features casino chip experts and their displays dedicated to a multitude of gaming chip categories such as rare chips, roulette chips, counterfeit chips, illegal casino chips, odd denomination chips and collections dedicated to sports and even aliens. Additional collections on display will include gaming tokens, dice, slot cards and slot glass, playing cards, matchbooks, menus, dinnerware, swizzle sticks, casino photos, post cards – just about anything with a casino brand.

Concurrent to the Show, as part of the Casino Collectibles Association’s 501 (c) 3 educational requirement, the club hosts informal Meet & Greet Gaming Education Series featuring four gaming history celebrities, as well as four educational seminars which are offered to the public free of charge. A live auction of hundreds of casino chips and other casino memorabilia is also offered at no charge to show attendees.

The Casino Chips and Collectibles Show registration and admission is open to the public June 16, 10 AM – 5 PM (admission $10), June 17, 9 AM – 4 PM (admission $5) and June 18, 9 AM – 4 PM (admission is free).
