The Signs of Change in Gaming History

Public Invited to attend four free seminars at World's Largest Casino Collectibles Show in June

LAS VEGAS (May 25, 2025) — Every year the non-profit Casino Collectibles Association features four intriguing and free educational seminars related to gaming and casino history as part of the World's Largest Casino Memorabilia Show, June 18 -20 at the South Point Casino in Las Vegas. The free seminars are part of the club's dedication to the preservation of casino gaming history. Each seminar lasts about an hour, and attendees are encouraged to pose questions to the speakers at the completion of each seminar.

Each seminar will be presented across the hall from the show floor in the Joshua Room at South Point. The seminar topics, speakers and appearance times are as follows:

The Legacy of Collecting and the Importance of the Neon Museum Sign Collection.

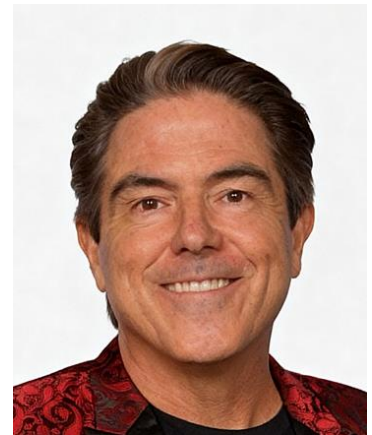

Aaron Berger is Executive Director and CEO of The Neon Museum, home to the iconic signage that helped define Las Vegas' glittering image as the gambling mecca of the world. Berger will call on his 20-plus years of museum leadership to talk about the legacy of collecting and the importance of The Neon Museum's iconic signage to the history of Las Vegas. Seminar:

Thursday, June 18 at 8 a.m.

The Signs of Change for Tomorrow's Casino Industry.

Scott Roeben, founder of Vital Vegas and digital media pro, delves into how the casino experience is changing, why, and what to expect in the future as the business model of the casino industry marches toward electronic gaming. Seminar: Thursday, June 18 at 3 p.m.

Researching Casino Chips? All Signs Point to the ChipGuide.

Charles Kaplan is the Chairman of the Casino Collectibles Association's Museum of Gaming History and the administrator of the ChipGuide. The ChipGuide is the world's largest catalog of casino chips and collectibles, currently featuring over 324,000 collectible items from 32,000 casinos worldwide. Kaplan will explain and demonstrate the many new features added to the ChipGuide in the past year and unveil a brand-new feature. Seminar: Friday, June 29 at 8 a.m.

How the Red-Light District was a Sign of the Times in Old Las Vegas.

Jami Rodman, author of The Las Vegas Madam and proprietor of the Las Vegas Guided Tours, an award-winning boutique company known for immersive, research-driven tours that bring to life the story of Block 16—the Red-Light District. Rodman will share the titillating history of early Vegas. Seminar: Friday, June 19 at 3 p.m.

About the Show.

The free seminars run concurrently with the Casino Collectibles Association’s 33rd annual show, which runs June 18 -20, 2026. Billed as The World’s Largest Casino Chip and Collectibles exhibition, it is open to the public and is a must-see event for anybody who is fascinated by gaming history. The show features the greatest single-location collection of the iconic artifacts and mementos that bring casino history, and memories, to life. Many are symbols of past gaming grandeur that are gone or becoming rare; souvenirs from when the casinos wanted customers to pocket their branded keepsakes as reminders of a memorable experience. Things like gaming chips of all denominations, gaming tokens, dice, slot cards, playing cards, matchbooks, ashtrays, menus, dinnerware, swizzle sticks, casino photos, post cards, signs, table felt, decanters—just about anything a casino could put its name on. Over 30 worldwide dealers will be on hand to offer attendees the unique opportunity to examine, buy, sell, or trade casino collectibles.

The exhibition is the annual educational effort of the Casino Collectibles Association, a non-profit club with hundreds of members who passionately share the hobby of collecting and preserving casino history. Show hours are June 18, 10 a.m.– 5 p.m. (admission $10), June 19, 9 a.m.– 4 p.m. (admission $5), and admission is free June 20 from 9 a.m.– 4 p.m. Admission is free every day for First Responders, Active Military and Casino Employees with appropriate ID.
