PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Welcome to another Great Edition of the Newsletter.

This month has been especially heartbreaking due to the cancellation of this year's Convention. I think I am still going thru withdrawals. I keep thinking of what I would have been doing, day-to-day, from Monday to Sunday of Convention Week. The biggest disappointment was not being able to see our great Club members. For many of us, it is the only opportunity to be face-to-face with members we communicate throughout the year. This too will pass, and with some sacrifice we will all come through this better and stronger.

I hope everyone received the June 17 EXTRA EXTRA Newsletter issue, announcing the outstanding members from the past year. Their dedication and efforts are an example for all of us, to be grateful that they are amongst us. Please take the time to send your well wishes via e-mail to our Awardees. The list of award winners is in this Edition, with their e-mail addresses.

The recent escalation of the virus in Nevada and other States, is very troublesome, especially to our age group. Please follow the commonsense protocols that are mandated and advised by the government. This is a great time to connect with fellow members and do your business online. Reorganizing your collections is also another way to get caught up while we hover around home.

On the bright side, Steve Palumbo, our Convention Chairman extraordinaire, is planning a fantastic Convention for 2021. By this time next year we will have forgotten about missing this year's show.

Until next time please stay Safe and Healthy.

Hall of Fame Induction Report...

As Chairman of the CC>CC's Hall of Fame Committee, the Committee, as a whole, started the process of evaluating and voting on those resumes submitted to us for consideration, by Club members, of those they felt should be included into the HOF.

We began our work in early February and the twenty-one living members of the HOF completed their work in mid March. This was done well before any thought that the pandemic might close Las Vegas and close any festivities.

I would like to thank all those who submitted nominations and especially the following HOF members for their diligence throughout this process.

As everyone waited for any word about the annual Convention moving forward, being postponed or canceled, the Committee had to wait also on how we needed to proceed with any announcement of our results. When word from the CC>CC Board finally came down that this year's annual Convention was canceled because of the coronavirus, it was also announced that any inductee would need to be made in a Special Edition of the CCA Newsletter.

Therefore, as would have been announced at the annual CC>CC Convention's Early Bird Banquet, the HOF Committee would not have inducted anyone into the CC>CC Hall of Fame for 2020.

As soon as possible, the Committee will meet through and discuss how we will move forward and once a new time line for the 2021 Convention is set, please look for next year's CC>CC Hall of Fame Recommendation Form.

Again, thanks to everyone involved,

Mark Lighterman

2020 World's Fair of Money Suspended

ANA Board of Governors to Consider Alternate Options

The American Numismatic Association (ANA) announced today the suspension of the 2020 World's Fair of Money®. The show, originally scheduled for August 4-8 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, is the largest annual coin and paper-currency event in the United States.

The ANA Board of Governors has been deliberating the impact of COVID-19 restrictions on the show and whether aggressive mitigation requirements to ensure the safety of attendees made continuing with the Pittsburgh event feasible. Current State of Pennsylvania guidelines restrict indoor gatherings to a maximum of 250 people at any one time. The World's Fair of Money typically attracts upward of 10,000 people during its 5-day smorgasbord of educational offerings, live auctions, affiliated club meetings, and a bourse floor with nearly a thousand dealers and government mints from around the world.

The Board resolved in a vote on June 16 to postpone the show and to consider alternate sites and/or dates for the 2020 World's Fair of Money.

According to Jennifer Ackerman, ANA conventions director, because of Pennsylvania's restrictions on indoor gatherings, "none of the usual World's Fair of Money offerings would be possible at the Pittsburgh show. No exhibits, no educational programming, no Kids Zone, no club meetings, no banquet, and a significantly reduced bourse. Our team has been in nearly daily conversations with the convention center, but it's become evident that they are unable to fulfill their contractual obligations."

Pittsburgh World's Fair of Money Committee Chair Tom Uram noted the Pennsylvania Association of Numismatists (PAN) had "anticipated a convention that would showcase the ANA and the city of Pittsburgh. But based on our analysis and review of all relevant information – the diminished show experience for attendees, health and safety issues, security, financial impact and the significant unknown outside variables – the host committee recommended that the ANA Board not hold the Pittsburgh World's Fair of Money," he says.

Since 1891, the American Numismatic Association's convention has only been cancelled twice; in 1918 during the flu pandemic and again in 1945 because of World War II.

"The decision to postpone the World's Fair of Money was very emotional and extremely difficult," says ANA President Steve Ellsworth. "The convention staff and the Pittsburgh organizing committee worked hard to make the show a reality. PAN went beyond all expectations to deliver what would have been a fantastic event, and I'm deeply disappointed that the collecting community won't be able to experience the results of their efforts. I know we will return to Pittsburgh in the not-so-distant future. In the meantime, we will pursue opportunities to host the event in another city in the weeks ahead." Options briefly discussed include The Broadmoor in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and the Mountain America Expo Center and Salt Palace Convention Center, both of which are located in Salt Lake City, Utah.

"During these trying and socially-isolated times, we were looking forward to reconnecting with our fellow numismatists," says ANA Executive Director Kim Krick. "We're disappointed we won't be seeing everyone in Pittsburgh but are working hard to create other opportunities to connect."

"The ANA and PAN recognize that dealers, clubs and many individuals may have already made plans and reservations in Pittsburgh for August," says Ackerman. Hotel room reservations within the reserved block in the Omni William Penn, Embassy Suites by Hilton, Courtyard or Westin Convention Center that were made through VisitPittsburgh Housing Services automatically will be cancelled within 48 hours; do not contact the hotel directly. For those that made lodging accommodations directly with a hotel, cancellation will need to be made directly with those entities. Lodging questions should be directed to housing@visitpittsburgh.com.

Dealers will be contacted directly by the ANA convention team. "To mitigate the influx of calls and emails, dealers will be contacted by phone within the next week to discuss the option of a future credit towards an ANA show or a refund," Ackerman says. "The ANA convention staff will be reaching out to every dealer who reserved a table at Pittsburgh. Your patience is much appreciated."

The American Numismatic Association is a congressionally chartered, nonprofit educational organization dedicated to encouraging the study and collection of coins and related items. The ANA helps its 28,000 members and the public discover and explore the world of money through its vast array of educational and outreach programs, as well as its museum, library, publications and conventions. Look for the next one to be in September, and probably on a Sunday. We will have the same buy-in of $100, and $20 of each buy-in will be donated to the CCA.

As a reminder this is not sponsored by the CCA, but the participants are CCA Members doing their part to help the Club. ChipGuide Hits 250,000 Items

By Charles Kaplan, LM-115-148

On June 20, 2020 the 250,000th item was added to the ChipGuide. It is an incredible COMMUNITY achievement. Collectors went through their collections to find items that were not on the ChipGuide and scanned them and submitted the images. ChipGuide Admins processed the submissions. The CCA and the MoGH host the ChipGuide website. Everyone was involved and everyone benefits. There is probably not another hobby like Casino Collectibles in the world, you should all be proud of this achievement.

$5 Lunar New Year 2015 Chip

Submitted by: J. Eric Freedner

To commemorate the event, a special "Thanks a ¼ Million" chip was produced. Only 100 were made, each with a serial #. The chips are for a fund raiser for the Museum of Gaming History. They were only $10 each, $15 if you wanted a specific serial #, on a first come, first served basis. I am personally having the chips produced and paying for it myself and I paid for the mailing. The MoGH got the entire donation. All 100 chips sold out in 4 days and raised $1,867.50 for the MoGH.

The ChipGuide Thanks a ¼ Million Chip

Along with the "Thanks a ¼ Million" chip, there was a raffle. A website, RANDOM.ORG, was used to generate a random number between 1 and 100. The owner of the "Thanks A ¼ Million" chip with that serial #, won the raffle prize of the five, $1 Thunderbird host chips shown below. The raffle was staged as a live video event on June 24th with 30 collectors tuning in.

The winner is Paul Liscio, #21.

Raffle Prize – Five $1 Thunderbird Host Chips

An update on the Legendary Stardust Project.

While we are still on-hold for this Project, we are very much still involved! The developer of the Project has asked for our help, as a seperate effort, to ask our membership for "tourist" taken pictures of the Stardust. Both inside and outside, color or black/white, large or small. But they MUST be pictures that our members own.

Offered images will be used to populate a Stardust History website. Credit will be given to The MoGH and there will be usage of the MoGH logo there, as well as linkage to the MoGH's website. On the MoGH's website we have the same images, with individual credit for each image.

Please contact Jim Follis for additional details, or to submit material, at: Jim@GamingOre.com.

The above images are examples of what we are looking for. These images have been temporarily 'water-marked'. Final images will be shown without water-marking. These images have been provided to The MoGH, for this purpose, by a non-MoGH individual, who snapped these images around 1965, as 12-year old visiting Las Vegas with his parents. Thank you, Herb Redholtz.

A NEW CHIPGUIDE FEATURE!

The Top 10's to 100! has moved to ChipGuide!

I am please to announce that Charles Kaplan, MoGH Webmaster, has programmed ChipGuide to allow CCA Members to designate their Top 10 most favorite collectibles, in most ChipGuide categories. Details will be offered soon, but a forth red/green button will be added (TT), similar to the current, MY, WL and TL buttons. More news will follow on the Club's Message Board and elsewhere.

Southern Nevada Casino Collectibles Club

Hello to all my fellow club members.

I hope everyone is healthy and safe. It seems like an eternity since we last met. I cannot wait for all of us to get past this, and resume my favorite part of our Club functions, our Monthly Meetings.

SNCCC Board Meeting - We are going to conduct a Board Meeting at the Gold Coast in mid July to try to determine when it is in our best interest to resume our Monthly Meetings. The Management at the Gold Coast has graciously allowed us to have more space to enact social distancing. We will be contacting everyone with a special Email blast to the SNCCC Membership by July 17. Many items will be discussed and if you wish to have any questions answered, please e-mail Jim Follis at Jim@Gaming Ore.com.

SNCCC Route 66 Bus Tour - Our FUN TRIP has been rescheduled for Saturday September 26. This date may well change depending on when the pandemic has subsided and it is safe for us to gather. All the travel details are the same as our previous trips. We have 2 seats still available if anyone would like to join us. The price is $20 per person. If you cannot make it please contact me to make further arrangements. Rich Burgel will be adding some extra surprises on the trip, with more prizes and give away's. My contact information is vergatos@msn.com if you wish to join us.

Please take care of yourself and your loved ones. Until we meet again keep busy and observe social distancing.
