PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Welcome to another edition of our monthly Newsletter. I hope everyone is trying to enjoy themselves in this turbulent time. I cannot wait for this to be all over with, so that we can resume our lives without all the restrictions. In the meantime, following the safety protocols will help in bringing this situation to a speedy close.

On the bright side, in case anyone has not noticed, ChipGuide, our data base, recently reached a 250,000-listing milestone. That is a fantastic accomplishment achieved by Charles Kaplan and his administrators. They are well on their way to reaching another milestone soon. Congrats to everyone for their hard work and contribution's. The ChipGuide is one of our greatest assets. Please support it.

Another of our greatest assets is The Museum of Gaming History (MoGH). Through the stewardship of Jim Follis, Chairman of the Exhibits and Displays Committee for the MoGH, he has set new milestones with our exhibits and has increased our presence throughout the Las Vegas area. There are many Projects in the works with exciting news to be released very soon. Stay Tuned.

Every so often I am asked by Club members what exactly is the MoGH. My answer to that question, first off, is that it is "the future of our Club".

The MoGH is positioning itself to become a real-life brick and mortar Museum. They have taken steps to achieve that goal and hopefully be successful soon.

It is also important to note that all CCA current Members are automatically members of the MoGH and have the option of upgrading their membership to Gold Level or even Lifetime Membership. These upgrades help support the many projects and exhibits that are undertaken throughout the year. Your support is always welcome. If you wish to upgrade please contact me at vergatos@msn.com for more details.

In closing I wish everyone to stay safe and healthy. I look forward to next years Convention, where we can all see each other and renew our friendships.

Best regards to all

CCA Board of Directors Meeting...

On Monday July 6, 2020, the Casino Collectibles Association held it's Annual Board of Directors Meeting.

Normally this meeting is held the Tuesday before the Annual Convention, with all the Board members in attendance. Due to the cancellation of the Convention, the Board meeting was held online for two days. All normal business was conducted.

The business meeting that is open to CCA Membership on Saturday the last day of the Convention, was not held, as there was no venue to conduct such an open meeting. Notices have been in all the Newsletters from the previous months, soliciting questions and issues to be brought before the Board. This Notice and will continue through this year.

In lieu of conducting this open forum any current member of the CCA is invited to send me any question or comment to be considered by the Board.

By no means is the Board trying to circumvent this open forum in any way. The unusual circumstances gave way to unusual solutions. This of course is a temporary solution and hopefully will be a one-time event.

Correction - Last month's CCA Newsletter erroneously entitled Paul Bender's Award winning book. We apologize for this oversight. The correct title is: "The Joints of Jeffersonville and Southern Indiana".

Casino Collectibles Association's, Membership Directory, Acceptable Use Policy

For the purpose of maintaining an accurate and up-to-date membership roster, the CCA collects and retains member names, mailing addresses, email addresses, phone numbers, membership numbers, dates joined, valid through dates, "Do Not Publish" (DNP) status, and other similar data, into a digital database. In order to protect the privacy of our members, the following guidelines are adopted as CCA Board Policy, as they relate to requests by CCA Members for a Membership Directory.

A full membership directory will be provided when a member's request is for a CCA business-related purpose.

Examples: To verify membership for voting (CCA Officer and Constitutional Elections), OTY Awards nominations and balloting, Hall of Fame recommendation submittals, and the like.

To provide follow up contact information for a CCA sponsored events, such as the Convention Raffle, Auctions, fundraisers, etc.

A partial membership directory (members name and mailing address only) may be provided to a CCA member, when the request is not for a CCA sponsored event or official use. Whenever a digital version is provided, care is taken to only include the data noted, i.e. name and mailing address. Moreover, DNPs, as noted below, will not be included in the Directory provided.

Examples: To aid in the advertising an upcoming chip show, local clubs meetings and the like.

When a full or partial membership directory is provided, it shall be marked, across the top of each page, that it has 'DO NOT PUBLISH' ("DPNs" as noted below) information.

The CCA provides members the opportunity to indicate 'Do Not Publish' (DNP) along with their membership and these members will have their information provided only when the request is CCA business-related. The DNP designation is done at the time of application for membership and can be added or deleted at any time by notifying the CCA Membership Officer.

Musings from The MoGH...

A lot has been happening since the last issue of the CCA Newsletter. In other words there's a lot of news to tell you about, so here it comes.

A. Congratulations to Charles Kaplan on winning the MoGH Chairman's Award, for his outstanding contributions to the MoGH over the last year. You wouldn't believe all that he's done. I'll tell you a little about it as we go on.

B. A Second Congratulations to Charles Kaplan for being chosen as the MoGH's new Vice-Chairman. Way to go Charles.

D. The MoGH also filled it's missing 3 positions for Board of Directors.

The MoGH is now fortunate to have Jay Sands, Rick Lonski and Tom Dyer, as our newest members of the MoGH Board of Directors. Congratulations to all three. They should provide a big boost in moving the MoGH forward towards accomplishing its goals.

E. Charles Kaplan continued his roll by creating the "Chip Guide Treasure Hunt."

The event consisted of members tracking down the home casino for 20 different casino chips by using the Chip Guide. The winner of the event received a special prize.

It happened as follows:

The ChipGuide announced its first ever Treasure Hunt.

On Thursday, July 16th, at 9pm EDT pictures of 20 different chips were posted on the CCA Message Board and the TheChipBoard.com Members had 24 hours to find all the chips on ChipGuide and submit the ChipGuide #'s of each chip.

The one with the most correct ChipGuide #'s won. In the event of a tie, the first one submitted became the winner. Those who attended the "Are You a ChipGuide Detective?" webinar will have had an advantage.

If you didn't attend, you could watch a recording of the webinar on YouTube: <https://youtu.be/-zsYgorV500>

The contest was only open to ChipGuide members, which was free for members of the CCA or MoGH. Only logged on members of the ChipGuide saw a link to the Treasure Hunt submission form.

Results: There were 22 participants in the Chip Guide Treasure Hunt. They did fantastic. There were 9 perfect scores. Charles decided to make this a "Pro-Am" event and declared two winners. Amazingly, Luke Rapley (Pro, as a ChipGuide Admin) scored 100%, 20 out of 20, in only 47 minutes. And Barry Sherwood (Amateur) took 49 minutes and 16 seconds for his perfect score. Congratulations to Luke and Barry.

They will both be receiving a special chip as their prize.

F. Jim Follis has been doing some amazing things.

In addition to overseeing our existing Exhibits Jim, has been working on the creation of several new ones. More to come later. Thanks Jim.

A lot of good things are happening at the MoGH. virus or not, we are determined to move forward. May everyone remain well.

Thanks and Best Wishes

Steven Palumbo

Thank you Steve, a most excellent report, but before I get to an update on the Legendary Stardust Project, we need to add your omitted Item "C"....

C. A big CONGRATULATIONS to Steven Palumbo on being selected as the new MoGH Chairman. Way to go Steve!

And now, the latest on the Legendary Stardust Project, especially now that we are at liberty to disclose the full nature of this Project.

About a year ago, I was contacted by a Boyd Gaming vendor, asking if I was familiar with the concept of "Pop-Up Museums"? I had to say that I needed to Google it, but after a few hits, I had the general idea, which is to temporarily, put up an easily transported display, that can pop-up here today and somewhere else tomorrow. We began discussions wherein the MoGH would support a traveling museum, in tribute to the Legendary Stardust, as well as setting up fixed displays at 7 Las Vegas area Boyd Gaming properties, and Boyd Gaming's Corporate Headquarters location also here in Las Vegas.

At the time, Boyd Gaming was beginning their transition to Aristocrat's casino management software programming, which included a complete revamping of Boyd Gaming's "B-Connected" Player Rewards Program. Moreover, the Aristocrat product also offered a social gaming platform, which could be integrated into Boyd's "B-Connected" Rewards Program, as well as Facebook and other "social" media platforms.

Initially, the roll-out of that social media product, called "Stardust Social Casino" was to be enhanced at the Las Vegas Boyd properties with MoGH display cabinets, using content loaned and donated from or membership and others.

But enter COVID-19....

March of 2020 was one of the target dates, but the closure of casinos State-wide in Nevada, put a delay on that. With the casinos re-opening here Las Vegas in June, we had hoped for better developments. Unfortunately, CDC recommendations against group gatherings and social distancing, it would be contrary to setting up displays where the intent is to draw viewership with people standing shoulder-to-shoulder. And we are again, on hold for the displays for the displays.

However, since Boyd's overall effort is geared for online engagements, a website is being developed to promote the Stardust Social Casino and parts of that development includes creating content with videos, images, and sorts of digital media related 'stuff' and The MoGH will shortly be signing an Agreement to provide tourist taken photographs of the Stardust, over the years, for which the MoGH has obtained approval to use in this manner.

So, in short, the MoGH is still on-hold for our need for Stardust material in the form of loans or donations, and we are actively seeking tourist taken pictures of the Stardust, where we can obtain owner permission to use the images.

The MoGH's website will host all such images, with ownership credit being giving for each image. When provided to Boyd Gaming, credit will be given to The MoGH, where possible, in name or via the MoGH's logo. Moreover, where possible, a hot-link to The MoGH will also be added.

Jim Follis

Museum of Gaming History

Events and Exhibits Director

Available at Google Play and Apple Play, is this free APP. As we move forward with this involvement with Boyd Gaming, we will be providing appropriate linkage to their Facebook page, YouTube videos, websites, etc.

Call for Legendary Stardust Photographs!...

While we are still on-hold for this Project, we are very much still involved! The developer of the Project has asked for our help, as a separate effort, to ask our membership for "tourist" taken pictures of the Stardust. Both inside and outside, color or black/white, large or small. But they MUST be pictures that our members own.

Offered images will be used to populate a Stardust History website. Credit will be given to The MoGH and there will be usage of the MoGH logo there, as well as linkage to the MoGH's website. On the MoGH's website, we will have the same images, along with individual credit for each image.

Please contact Jim Follis for additional details, or to submit material, at: Jim@GamingOre.com.

The above images are examples of what we are looking for. These images have been temporarily 'water-marked'. Final images will be shown without water-marking. These images have been provided to The MoGH, for this purpose (by a helpful, non-MoGH individual) who snapped these images around 1965, as 12-year old, visiting Las Vegas with his parents. Thank you, Herb Redholtz.

PLEASE DO NOT SCOUR THE INTERNET FOR IMAGES! SUBMITTED IMAGES MUST BE PERSONALLY OWNED. APPROVAL TO USE WILL BE REQUIRED.
